UNIVERSITY ANTHEM.

TUNE:—"Adeste Fideles."

Words by Dr. John M. Gregory.

1. We hail thee! Great Fountain of learning and light;
There's life in thy radiance, there's hope in thy might;
We greet now thy dawning, but what singer's rhyme
Shall follow thy course down the ages of time? (Repeat last line)
2. O'er homes of the millions, o'er fields of rich toil,
Thy science shall shine as the sun shines on soil,
And Learning and Labor—fit head for fit hand—
Shall crown with twin glories our broad prairie land.
3. And as generations in the grand march of time,
Shall fill the long ages with numbers sublime.
Thy portals shall throng with the lowly and great,
Thy science crowned children shall bless all the State.
4. Then hail thee! Blest Fountain of learning and light,
Shine on in thy glory, rise ever in might;
We greet now thy dawning; but ages to come
Must tell of the grandeur and shout, Harvest Home.

FAIR ILLINOIS.

Tune:—“Fair Harvard.”
Words by E. L. Poor, '02.

1. Dear Illinois, now in the days of our youth,
When our hearts are all happy and gay,
The lamp of thy wisdom illuminates our paths,
And drives all the dark shadows away;
Thy campus, thy halls, and thy high reaching tow'rs,
And thy spirit that hovers above,
Inspire us to deeds that are noble and true,
And to them turn our heart's warmest love.
2. Dear Illinois, when in our age we return,
To be welcomed again to thy halls,
May thy many new victories add to the charm
Of the vision our mem'ry recalls;
And when the last twilight shall fade in our eyes,
And we reckon the fruits of our years,
May thy glad blessing rest on our labor well done,
And may none give occasion for tears.

THE GIRL OF ILLINOIS.

Tune:—“Solomon Levi.”

1. You meet her on the campus, you meet her in the hall,
You meet her in the class room, At lecture or a ball,
She's numerous as to number, She's varied as to name,
And yet where e'er she may appear, You know her just the same.

Chorus.

O College Girl—the Girl of Illinois,
O College Girl, she's loyal and true to the Orange and Blue,
O College, College Girl, The Girl of Illinois,
The witching spell she wields so well,
There's nothing can destroy.
O College, College Girl, Chock full of knowledge Girl,
The fascinating, captivating Girl of Illinois.

2. Her L. & A. gives culture, in grace and pow'r combined,
Her science stands for practiced hands, For strong and steadfast mind,
While lessons culinary, In courses short and sweet,
With social pow'rs for gayer hours, Harmoniously complete. Chorus.

THE ILLINOIS SUNSET SONG.

1. A thousand flags are waving for the heroes of the field,
A thousand voices shouting for the men that never yield,
The Autumn sun is setting now in glory in the West,
'Tis flinging forth its banners in the colors we love best.
See how its rays upshooting, join with the sky's pure hue
To signal for the victory of the Orange and the Blue.

Chorus.

O, the Orange and the Blue, To you we'll e'er be true;
While life remain we'll pledge again, Dear Illinois to you.

2. An old man sits and ponders, while the evening shadows grow,
At close of day, till in the West the heav'ns are all aglow,
Once more those flags are waving, once more the cheer is raised,
As the old man lives in fancy o'er his dear old college days.
For he has seen at set of sun, what in his youth he knew,
O Alma Mater Illinois! thy Orange and thy Blue. (Chorus)
3. Hail to thee, Alma Mater! wherever we may be,
Within the pleasant home land, or beyond the storm swept sea,
From care and toil we pause to rest, when the day's long work is done,
To gaze upon thy blazon at the setting of the sun.
And all thy sons and daughters their love for thee renew,
Beholding in the evening sky the Orange and the Blue. (Chorus)
